

Tuning In - The heyday of TV music

Across

- 1 "Who can turn the world on with her smile?"
_____ Moore
- 5 Andy whose sitcom starts with whistling and snapping
- 9 Lalo Schifrin wrote the famous theme that would become an iconic franchise tune for "_____ Impossible"
- 10 "_____ Times" (first two-parent African American family sitcom)
- 13 Mouth sense
- 14 Chiropteran superhero with a ridiculously simplistic but easily recognizable theme song
- 15 Ed Asner played Mary Tyler Moore's crotchety boss, _____ Grant
- 16 Radiant rare rock
- 17 Story of one's life, briefly
- 18 "77 Sunset _____" (early detective series set in LA and starring Efrem Zimbalist, Jr.)
- 21 Western TV classic about the Cartwright family, introduced by a theme song with rarely heard but laughable lyrics
- 23 Information technology, briefly
- 24 Gentle martial art, _____ Jitsu
- 25 _____ Waterston is one of the original actors associated with "Law and Order"
- 28 "Come listen to a story 'bout a man named _____," the poor mountaineer striking black gold, Texas tea
- 29 Small, pointed missile
- 30 Title for a master cook
- 31 For twenty seasons viewers enjoyed the theme of "_____ smoke" on CBS
- 32 "You wanna go where everybody knows your name." That would be "Cheers" starring _____ Danson.
- 34 Companion of Larry and Curly
- 35 "No one can talk to a horse, of course; that is, of course, unless the horse is the famous Mr. _____"
- 36 In "The Fugitive," Richard Kimble _____ from custody and runs free for 120 episodes
- 38 Journal for personal thoughts

Down

- 1 Chinese dynasty famous for ceramics
- 2 Put up on social media, again
- 3 Opposite of west
- 4 Comedian and former Tonight Show host, Jay _____
- 5 "Five passengers [plus the Skipper and this first mate] set sail that day for a three-hour tour."
- 6 _____ better or worse
- 7 Verbal contract agreement at a wedding
- 8 TV Land's Trigger was one; so were Fury, Silver, and Mr. Ed
- 11 "C'mon, Get Happy," performed by David Cassidy, was the theme song for the "_____ Family"
- 12 "_____ and Order" is announced with two electronic open chords
- 14 Samantha's nose twitch was the cue to start this show's magical theme
- 15 Fleshy ear danglers
- 19 "One pair of matching bookends, different as night and day" refers to twin cousins on this actress's show
- 20 Composer Randy Newman wrote and sang this song about Adrian Monk, "It's a _____ Out There"
- 22 Harpsichord and finger snaps introduced the "creepy" and "spooky" _____ Family for 64 episodes
- 24 Successful businessman George _____ was "movin' on up" in an "All in the Family" spinoff
- 26 Right now! _____ once!
- 27 A certified physician appointed to investigate suspicious deaths, briefly
- 33 Covered in fine particles
- 37 The "coms" in "sitcoms"
- 40 "Rollin', rollin', rollin', keep those dawggies rollin'," sang Frankie Lane in Eastwood's debut Western, "_____ hide"
- 44 "Darlin', I love ya, but give me Park Avenue" was the final line of the "_____ Acres" theme

- 39 Attempt
- 41 Bottom border on clothing
- 42 Different as night and ____
- 43 Beloved titular Collie whose theme song tugged hearts
- 44 Eva _____ starred in 44-down (not her sister Zsa-Zsa)
- 47 Give a cursory glance
- 52 " _____ lives in a world full of wonder, under the sea." This animal actor was a dolphin.
- 53 ABC, CBS, and NBC are the Big Three _____
- 54 Jerry _____, known for film scores, wrote several TV themes, including the memorable music for "The Waltons"
- 45 "Mork and Mindy" spawned a renewed interest in these unidentified objects. Nanu-nanu.
- 46 Fifties hairstyle, like Lucille Ball's poodle
- 48 Fuzzy-skinned green fruit
- 49 False belief or idea
- 50 The "creepy and spooky and all together ooky" cousin of the Addams
- 51 First in Great Britain, then around the world, TV audiences were thrilled with the synthesized theme of "Doctor ____"